MARCELA

From the glamour of the golden age of cut glass to today's tabletop, Marcela barware blends traditional details with modern foodservice features.

This jewel-like design sparkles as it refracts light across bars and tabletops, while the diamond texture offers a satisfying tactile experience. Durable, stackable and big enough for large-format ice cubes, Marcela is elegance made to perform.

Marcela is part of The 1818 Collection™, which celebrates the ingenuity, resiliency and craftsmanship of America's Glassmaker with patterns inspired by Libbey's rich history and brilliant cut glass heritage.
