Family owned and operated since 1886.

MODEL NUMBER: DUT/723 Bun and Bagel Slicer

The Dutchess DUT/723 Bun and Bagel Slicer is a compact and robust, USA-made bagel and bun slicer that features adjustable slice heights and a gentle-touch exit door for safe, efficient operation. Designed with stainless steel components for durability, it includes separate on/off buttons, an easy-clean white powder-coat finish, and a blade guard with an access point, automatically powering down for safety.

- Ideal for on-premise slicing of Bread Products
- Cleanly slices bagels and buns with ease.
- Compact, robust design for ease of operation
- Safe, efficient alternative to slicing by hand
- Separate ON/Off Buttons for easy startup/shutdown
- The ergonomic slice height feature allows for easy, accurate, and repeatable adjustment
- The blade cover includes an access point to clean the underside of the blade without removing it.
- Blade safety guard incorporates an automatic power-down feature when removed
- Gentle-touch exit door slows sliced product from chute, protecting soft products from damage
- Optional return chute saves space, creates a production system, and is excellent in a slice-to-order operation where pre-slicing for sandwiches is common
